Schools of the Future — Now!

LexLeads—Lighthouse School

LMES earned FranklinCovey’s The Leader in Me program Lighthouse School designation for its well-rounded leadership model. The Leader in Me program helps students develop 21st century skills necessary for leadership. As a Lighthouse School, LMES serves as model of leadership and a mentor to other schools.

LexLearns—Response to Intervention

Response to Intervention is an early intervention program designed to help students achieve academic and behavioral success. Systematic instruction matched to student needs allows teachers to monitor students’ learning rates and/or behavioral performance over time in order to make educational decisions. The program provides three tiers of support, with the intensity of interventions increasing with each level.
